A GIFT FROM THE STARS.
By ERROL DRAKE.

A LONG time ago, when the stars ruled on high,
A great many wonders were seen in the sky.

There were tables of blue, there were couches of gold, And shelves of deep crimson, and colours untold.

There were robes black and shining, and walls white as snow, And many more things that I really don't know.

Now said Venus to Saturn, said Saturn to Mars,
Is it really do think we are greedy old stars?

For we have a secret that no one does know:
Let us share with the mortals who live down below.

So they took the great secret, tucked it on to a spear, Tied up in a thing that we call an idea.

Then dropped it right down on the top of a man, Who, despairing, was painting a hot-water can.

The spirit it struck home, the idea was unfaded,
And now the great wonder is known to the world.

Is carried by train, is carried by boat, Is known to all people, on land or afloat.

Is carried by horse, is carried by candy,
And this is its name—"ASPINAL'S EXAMEL!"

PARIS, 30th.—The population awoke to-day as if it expected to have to repulsive a formidable attack. Nothing was heard of the Anarchists in carrying out their threats, which they continue to use, even in face of the severe measures taken daily by the authorities, who assert that there is no reason to fear as yet.

Meanwhile, it is noted that the greatest precautions are being taken to suppress any disorder. The police are charged with the dispersion of crowds in the streets, and where dangerous speeches may be delivered. In case of resistance a great number of troops are under arms in barracks to-day.

The garrison has been considerably reinforced with the 3rd Hussars and 9th Dragoons. Six regiments of cavalry are stationed in the suburbs, and orders are given to keep their horses saddled and ready to answer the first alarm. All the troops in barracks have thirteen cases of cartridges per man. The public mountains will be guarded by armed policemen.

Further search was made to-day in several houses of the Anarchists. At Union this morning an attempt was made to blow up the Town Hall, and numerous arrests were made.

The Anarchists' latest threat is that they will renew the explosions within five days. It is impossible to say if the proprietors of English and American shops have received notice that all the houses of foreigners will be destroyed.

Madrid, 30th.—Anarchist proclamations of a violent character have been posted all over the city. The police are tearing them down, and searching the workmen's clubs, in which they have made several arrests. The Minister of War has ordered detachments of troops to occupy strategic positions in the city tomorrow, and, at the first sign of tumult, to charge on those creating it, without waiting for the proclamation of martial law.

Paris, 30th.—As a precautionary measure for to-morrow, and in view of the existing agitation all over Europe, arrests of Anarchists have been made yesterday and to-day all over the Kingdom.
Forty men were taken in the morning, thirty in the afternoon, and thirty in the evening. The police are tearing them down, and searching the workmen's clubs, in which they have made several arrests. The Minister of War has ordered detachments of troops to oc-

Dividing the mixed parents equally we find the population to be—Argentines 129,000
Foreigners 410,000
Total 539,000

It appears therefore that whether measured by birth rate or marriage rate the population consists of 25 per cent. Argentines and 75 per cent. Europeans.

The death-roll for the month showed the principal diseases thus—

Contagious 130
Still-born 105
Typhoid 100
Pneumonia 67
Nervous disorders 60
Heart disease 32
Infant lockjaw 32
Sundry 467

The consumption of food during the month was—

Horned cattle 38,400
Sheep 44,800
Poultry 123,000
besides many articles of less note.

The railways made 152,000 journeys, carrying 5,830,000 passengers, or 104 times the population.

A STRONG HAND.

The country is going to the devil so fast that Dr. Sanchez Peña, or whoever may be the new President, will have to take the reins of Government with a strong hand. We have known Argentina more than 30 years, but never seen the foundations of civilized society so rudely shaken as at present. Not California in its worst days was nearly so disordered.

All respect for law and order has disappeared, and life under present circumstances becomes insupportable.

The natural result of this lawless state of affairs must be a complete change of system. Men will call out impunity for a better order of things, and introduce some form of government under which robbery, pillage and assassination may be checked.

In yesterday's paper we published 4 murders committed at La Plata, one for a matter of two cents; also the murder of a railway engineer near Tucuman.
There is no effort to punish the assassins, any more than as regards the murders of two families at Ramallo.

In Rosario the weekly number of one murderer has fallen to 4, according to the Tucuman bandit dressed as police are robbing and murdering freely. In Mendoza two Englishmen were murdered last month.

Add to this the riots in Buenos Aires last week, which kept this city in a state of alarm, and which the police are apparently unable to put down.

This is turning out to be a very important matter, and it is imperative that a remedy be found at once so terrible a state of things, and unless the President be determined to introduce capital punishment for the crime of murder, and to property the existence of the State.
